Dinner in South Bend

Wednesday at 5:00 PM, Again at the State Café

The 56J dinner is set for 5:00 PM on Wednesday, June 20 at the State Café & Catering in South Bend. I won't be arriving till Tuesday afternoon, so Jim Bella has graciously agreed to post the sign up sheet (or sheets) for me. I have already made the arrangements with the restaurant owner, Brenda Markin, so all I need to tell her is the number of people coming. This is the same restaurant which we used in 2002, only Brenda has moved the café to a new location. The new address is:

The State Café & Catering

117 E. Wayne St., South Bend

(574) 234-5855 www.thestatecafe.com

Located just slightly north of the corner of Michigan and Jefferson.

The restaurant is not normally open for dinner, so we will have the place to ourselves. Anyone wishing to arrive early, can join in on the tire kicking out front. Brenda may allow us to enter early, but I'm not sure about that.

If you think you will be attending the dinner, let me know and I'll put your name on the list ahead of time. Then you won't have to look for it at the meet.

*Old Cars Weekly letter gets a reply
From K V Smith*

(Note: K V sent me a letter he had written to Old Cars Weekly. Since I no longer subscribe to that publication, I wasn't aware of the situation. I asked K V for a little background, and he sent the following:)

Basically, a fellow wrote a letter to the editor saying that he was in the Air Force at a base in 1953 and 1954 and there was a guy there with a stick shift Olds that would outrun anything. A new airman showed up with a Golden Hawk (didn't say what year). I quote the letter: "We couldn't believe that it was never a race, as the Olds retained its proud honor of the fastest car on the base! We actually felt bad for the owner of the Hawk, as it was quite embarrassing to get beat by the 3 year old Oldsmobile."

If the GH was a '58 and the Olds could have been a '55 and it only had 324 CID rated at 202 horsepower. If the GH was a '56 then the Olds was a '53 with 324 CID and 165 horsepower ('54 had 185 hp). That's why I wrote the letter. Our '58 J-2, 371 CID and 312 horsepower was not nearly as fast as the '56 GH. There must have been something drastically wrong with the GH. I just wanted to put my 2 cents worth in!

Here is K V's letter:

The "Sound Your Horn" letter about the Olds and the Golden Hawk (Feb 15, 2007 Issue) brought back fond memories of the '50s. My brother, Buddy, and I were teenagers then and we were fortunate to have a dad that really liked cars. The family owned several Oldsmobiles: '50 88, '53 88, '53 Super 88, '58 Super 88 with J-2 option. All had Hydramatic. We also had a new '55 Ford Fairlane with 3 speed and overdrive, a new '56 Chevy 210, Power-Pak with 3 speed and OD, and a new '59 Plymouth Savoy 318, Power-Pak with 3 speed and OD.

In October of 1959 my dad bought a '56 Studebaker Golden Hawk with 3 speed and overdrive. As I recall, the Golden Hawk was a quicker car than any of the others and would get over 20 mpg on the highway. I can remember my dad saying gas was costing him $40 a month to drive the J-2 Olds. He traded it on a new '61 Falcon (27 mpg on the highway). I still own and drive the Golden Hawk.

56J Sightings From Bob Palma

Two SDCers and I followed up on a lead today (3-28-07) and went to see two 56Js and a 1955 Speedster that were rumored to be sitting in a quasi junk yard. Indeed they were.

I had actually seen the cars maybe 20 years ago, when the used-car-dealer-owner (Dick Bennett; Bloomington IN) had the cars set aside to "restore some day." At the time, they were lined up neatly on gravel on the back of his lot. He lost the lot and several years ago apparently moved the whole bunch to a low-lying area north of Bloomington IN on old State Road 37 that is a muddy mess. As a result, all three are well beyond restoration, as is the 1958 Chrysler 300 D hardtop he also has rotting away....and a 1966 Corvair convertible and two early Mustang convertibles, etc, etc.

We could not get the drivers doors open on either 56J to record the Serial Numbers; too much heavy junk in the way and it had been raining and everything was muddy as well; the cars are well sunk down into the mud.

However, we did get the hoods open and recorded the body tags, so I am sure you can quickly go backwards and determine these cars' serial numbers, and whether or not you have them in your list of known, extant 56Js. I am sure these tags have not been moved around; they look quite original and undisturbed.

The body numbers were 3442 and 3897.

Do you have either car in your registry (or register; I keep forgetting which term you prefer!)? If not, you may put them down as extant, but they are now only rusty, rough Midwest parts cars that have some pieces missing (intake manifolds and carburetors, for example, although what appear to be the original engines are in place.) The vandals have invaded the area as well, so most of the glass on all the cars is broken.

Incidentally, the Speedster was every bit as rusty as the 56Js, but the leather interior was remarkably nice considering the conditions. That car was covered with a heavy plastic tarp. But here's the real curiosity of the Speedster: It is a factory overdrive(!) car with power steering! Boy, you don't think that complete setup would be worth a fortune if the car was carefully parted out, which it needs to be. Overdrive Speedsters are much rarer than even the rare 56J overdrive cars, as you know. Let me know if these are new "finds," will you?

(NOTE: I found the serial numbers, 6032923 and 6033292, for these cars and sent the information back to Bob.)

Thanks for the confirmation. If you do such things in your data base, you can put down the owner of those two cars as Dick Bennett of Bloomington IN. I do know he owns the cars, at least for now.

The black and white car is still black and white, although it's been repainted several times.

I was wondering about the other car's original color, the one your data base shows as being yellow and white. That car has been reworked and repainted so many times, and used body parts installed that had been on other colors, that I really couldn't figure out what the original color might have been! (Didn't try too hard, I'll admit.) It looks like it might have been painted red and white at some time, and now it is a solid, hideous green of some sort. It's all so blotchy, though, that it's hard to figure out what the last iteration was intended to be.

I took several photos of both cars (print film, with a single-use camera) and as soon as I have prints made, I'll send you some. Hold your nose! As bad as they are, I always think it is nice to record a car as extant over 50 years later.

Any of these three cars (including the overdrive Speedster) would be a far greater challenge for Pat Doherty than was 6032356. As bad as was 6032356, it was still a running and driving car when he bought it, and the worst modification it have ever seen was a repaint in a non-original color. It had probably never sat outside in the Midwest, left unattended to rot and be vandalized for years, either.

1958 Golden Hawk Register New register added to our web site

Joe Parsons asked for help in starting a register for 1958 Golden Hawks. We are already hosting pages for 1956 Sky Hawks, and the Jet Thrust News, so I offered a similar option to Joe. I created a web page and added a link to from the 1956 Golden Hawk Owners Register home page.

Recently, a list of Registers was printed in the Studebaker Drivers Club's Turning Wheels. I was surprised to see so many, and I'm happy to help Joe start a new one.

He will maintain his own register. I will maintain the web site, and forward on-line registrations to him. I don't know what Joe's future plans are for this new register, but hopefully, the register will grow into something enjoyed by all 1958 Golden Hawk owners.

This type of specialization in specific models is a great help to owners, and provides another level of services to the Studebaker fan.

Newsletter Delivery

Changes to how you get it

Beginning with this issue, everyone on my email address received notification that the newsletter was posted to the web site and was available for viewing and/or printing. If you have agreed to accept the newsletter via the web site, simply follow the normal procedure by clicking on "Newsletters" and selecting the issue of your choice.

For those of you who have an email address, but still get delivery through the postal system, fear not. Simply ignore the email message and wait a few more days. Your newsletter should arrive in the next week or so. Of course, if I don't have an email address for you, none of this applies.

This change will make it a little easier for me to manage my email address lists. Prior to this change, I had two separate address lists. One was for all owners for which I had an email address. The second list was for those getting the newsletter through the web site, including non owners. This duplication caused many problems.

If someone changed email addresses, I had to change it in two places, something I didn't always remember to do. Often, I ended up with the wrong address in one of the lists. This change will eliminate that problem, and be less work for me. I like that! Some of you, on the other hand, will simply receive three extra email messages each year, which you can simply ignore. Consider it "good spam."

The end result is this.

- Everyone for whom I have an email address, will receive a notice that the latest issue is available for viewing.
- If you get the newsletter via the web site, just follow the normal procedure.
- If you have an email address, but receive the newsletter through the postal service, just wait about a week for it to arrive. If it doesn't arrive, let me know.

I expect a few hitches initially, but once you get used to it, there should be no problems. After all, we own 1956 Golden Hawks, so we should be able to accomplish this feat through an easy transition.

If you have web access and want to see the electronic version of 56J ONLY, just click on Newsletters and select the issue of your choice.

Mail Bonding

Letters are always welcome. If you need help or can offer advice, share it with other owners.

I noticed that my old 56J ser # 6800485 is listed in the "Here we grow again" section and that the owner is now a member and receives the 56J newsletter also I assume. I was wondering what happened to that car. I emailed Hans a couple of times and I never heard back from him. He may have changed his email address. The last I knew it was heading to the Carolinas where it was supposed to be shipped to Sweden. I'm glad to hear that it made it, and I hope he's enjoying it.

When he contacted you did he mention if he's restored it yet or is he working on it? I had forgotten the ser # on it, and I noticed that it was built 25 cars after my current 56J in CA. I always enjoy getting the newsletter, thanks for all you do.

Let me tell you about my car. A good friend of the family's father was retiring and moving up north. This man was a real pack rat. My future husband was looking to purchase a tube frame off road car. When I got to his house I saw the most amazing looking vehicle I have ever seen. A 1956 pink and white Studebaker Golden Hawk.

Now me, not knowing much about classic or rare cars had to have it. I mean, come on it was pink! And I have never heard of a Studebaker GH before in my life. I had to have it. So without my boyfriend knowing I made an offer on this beaut for $3,500. The man I bought it from gave me some grapevine history.

This car is said to be owned by a madam of Roxy's on Boulder Hwy. Now if that is true, than I wish that interior could talk! The Studebaker needs massive restoration but all the buttons and seats and everything is still there. Everyone says who knows cars is telling me that I have a gem.

Now after finding your Register and the 56J group I can see where they get that. To think I was going to sell it until I found you. Now it is heading for an overhaul. But I have to build or buy a house first.

I love showing off my GH even though it is not very pretty to look at right now. Do you know what the original color was? And what are the original colors names? How can

I get the previous owners names to see if my grapevine history is correct?

(Note: Dana's car was originally the rare P5664 Rosebud Snowcap White combination. Her car was not previously registered with me, so I couldn't help with the history.)

1956 Manuals on DVD+R New Item Joins The List of offerings

For several years now, we have been offering three different CDs. One contains the 1956 Golden Hawk Parts Catalog, Authenticity Guide, Accessories Manual, Owners Manual, and the Overdrive Manual. Another contains all the 1956 Golden Hawk production order information. The third CD contains all the back issues of the 56J ONLY newsletters. At the time, I wanted to fit all these items on one CD, but there simply wasn't enough room .

With the growing popularity of DVDs, I was able to make the conversion. The new DVD contains the files that are on all three CDs plus the 1955-58 Chassis Parts Manual, 1953-58 Body Parts Manual, 1956-57 Shop Manual, and the 1958 Shop Manual Supplement. All the files are in PDF format, viewable with Adobe® Acrobat® Reader which is also included on the new DVD. See the ad in the 56J Club Items section.

Here We Grow Again

Since the newsletter is now posted on the web site, we will no longer print addresses and phone numbers. If you move, please remember me when you send your change of address forms.
